

UP TO DATE and Up to Speed

Being Floyd County PVA in 2002 is a demanding job that requires specialized training and experience.

Connie Hancock is the only PVA candidate who:

- ★ Has worked in the PVA office for the last 12 years
- ★ Is the current Property Valuation Administrator and successor/step-daughter of Lovel Hall
- ★ Has received extensive training and understands the new $30,000 computer system
- ★ Can answer any PVA office questions with up to the minute hands-on knowledge and experience

Connie Hancock and her "Dad", Lovel Hall.

Connie is endorsed by all six PVA office deputies

Your property taxes are serious business. The Floyd County PVA office is no place for on the job training.
